क्रिया योग kriyā yoga

www.kriya.org

Kriya Yoga UK is delighted to announce the visit of Swami Samarpanananda Giri and Yogacharya Claudia Cremers to London from May 10 to May 12, 2013.

If you are interested in learning Kriya Yoga, there will be an introductory lecture on Friday 10th in the evening and an opportunity to be initiated and to learn and practice the techniques on Saturday and Sunday.

Kriya Yoga is the ancient and mystical path to self realisation. 'Kri' is the work or activity carried out by 'ya' the indwelling soul. Yoga is the union of individual self and Supreme self. Kriya Yoga is a non sectarian, scientific and practical meditation technique practised by sages and saints since time immemorial. Kriya Yoga leads to the transformation of the physical consciousness into Divine consciousness and is the essence of all yoga's taught in the world.

In order to practice Kriya Yoga, one needs to receive initiation which can only be given with the grace and love of the Master through an authorised teacher during which the body is purified and energised. The initiate may perceive Divine Light, Divine Vibration and Divine Sound in the whole body. There is no book or lesson to learn the Kriya Yoga techniques. Kriya Yoga emanates from beyond the five sense organs.

These teachings have been handed down through an unbroken lineage of realised masters since being re-introduced to the world in 1861 by Mahavatar Babaji. Both Swami Samarpananda Giri and Yogacharya Claudia Cremers are disciples of the great realised master Paramahansa Hariharananda who in turn is a disciple of Swami Sriyuktishwar. Many spiritual seekers will be aware of the great Kriya master Paramahansa Yogananda through his book Autobiography of a Yogi. Paramahansa Yogananda was also a disciple of Swami Sriyuktishwar.

Kriya Yoga can be learnt and practised by those who have never meditated before. For those who are already practicing this is an excellent opportunity to review your technique and to deepen your practice.

Swami Samarpanananda Giri

Yogacharya Claudia Cremers

Professor Suresh Chandra Mishra taught Political Science at a number of colleges in Orissa India. In 1982, he met Paramahansa Hariharananda and was initiated into Kriya Yoga. In 2004, he joined the Giri monastic order and was named Swami Samarpanananda Giri. Officially stationed in Hariharananda Gurukulam near Puri in India, Swami Samarpanananda manages the ashram activities, helps people on their spiritual path and travels extensively in India and abroad teaching Kriya Yoga.

Yogacharya Claudia Cremers was initiated into Kriya Yoga by Rajarshi Peter Baba in 1987 and met Gurudev Baba Hariharanandaji in 1990 in New York. Since then she has travelled frequently to India, Europe, and the USA to stay and meditate with Gurudev and his successor Paramahansa Prajñananda's. She was authorized to initiate other seekers into Kriya Yoga in May 2007. Claudia was born in the Netherlands, studied music and law in Amsterdam and post graduate government studies in Paris (ENA). Since 1987 she worked as a government official in international affairs. She travels extensively in Europe teaching Kriya Yoga.
