and Paramahansa Prajnanananda.

Initiation:

People who wish to learn Kriya Yoga must first receive initiation from an authorized teacher of Paramahansa Prajnanananda.

During the initiation ceremony the body, spine, and senses are purified. Then there is infusion of the triple divine qualities of light, sound, and vibration.

Please bring the following offerings to the
initiation:

- Five fruit represents fruitful activities throughout life
- Five flowers
represents the five senses
- Donation of €150
represents the physical body

After the initiation ceremony, the first level of the Kriya Yoga technique will be taught.
New initiates must attend at least three meditation classes during this program, which will help them learn and integrate the techniques.

Please bring a blanket or cushion and socks.
Loose, comfortable clothing is recommended.

Please arrive at least 15 minutes before initiation and meditation classes start.

Mobile phones must be switched off during the initiation and classes.

Directly after the Kriya Yoga retreat in Assisi there is the opportunity to join the Kriya Yoga weekend in Siena, surrounded by enchanting landscapes. Staying here longer, gives you the possibility of visiting some of the most charming places in Tuscany.

Admire medieval villages such as San Gimignano, Monteriggioni and Volterra. Pray in sanctuaries like St. Galgano, where "the sword in the stone" is kept or in St. Lucchese, where St. Francis founded the "Tertiary Franciscan Order". Walk down one of the most beautiful pathways of the ancient pilgrim route; the "Francigena way". This old road from the middle ages, still leads pilgrims from central Europe to St.
Peter's tomb in Rome.

The seminar will take place in an ancient building in the fascinating and quiet village Colle Val d'Elsa.
A good vegetarian buffet will be provided at €10 per meal. Alternatively, you can choose between various restaurants in the village. For accommodation one can pick anything from a cheap pilgrim hotel to a luxurious spa. A list of accommodation will be sent on request.
