

LOVE AND COMPASSION ARE OUR TRUE NATURE AN INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

Love is our message and compassion is our action.

Wednesday, May 21, 2014

6 – 9:30 pm ~ Admission is Free

Florida International University Graham Center Ballroom

---

6 pm Registration and reception

---

6:30 pm Introduction

Paramahansa Prajnanananda – world-revered master of Kriya Yoga and spiritual leader of Kriya Yoga International organizations

---

Keynote Speaker

Arun Gandhi – Grandson of Mahatma Gandhi, peace activist and proponent of non-violence

---

Panel Discussion by Religious Leaders

Moderated by

Dr. Nathan Katz – Distinguished Professor, School of International and Public Affairs at Florida International University

Master Chufei Tsai – Buddhist and Taoist master at Zen Village

Reverend Dianne Hudder – from the Christ Congregational Church in Miami, UCC and VITAS Hospice

Imam Mohammed Zakaria Badat – Resident Scholar, Islamic School of Miami

Ven Samani Unnata Pragya – Jain Nun and Instructor in Jain Studies at FIU

Mitchell Chefitz – Rabbi. Scholar-in-Residence, Temple Israel of Greater Miami

Dr. Vijay Raghavan – member of Vishwa Hindu Parishad

---

Questions and Answers moderated by

Dr. Nathan Katz

---

Closing Address

Paramahansa Prajnanananda

---

9:30 pm Symposium ends

---

The conference will be hosted by the Kriya Yoga Institute
FIU's Program in the Study of Spirituality.

Florida International University
Graham Center Ballroom
11200 SW Eighth St., Miami, FL, 33199

☎ 1-305-247-1960 – for more info about the program

This interfaith symposium is in celebration of the 40th Anniversary of Paramahansa Hariharananda coming to the West.