Matrukrupananda Giri: Following the spiritual path came easily to Harinath Bathina. In 2009, after many years of dedicated service to his family and job, Harinath retired from the workforce, and he and his wife, in loving agreement, turned the page on a beautiful new chapter of their lives. Following the ancient Hindu tradition of krama sannyasa, having completed the first two ashramas of life, brahmacharya and grihastha, they were given sacred diksha by their beloved Guruji Paramahansa Prajnananandaji and thus entered the third ashrama of vanaprastha. After receiving initiation, Harinath joyfully continued his seva and sadhana at the Miami ashram, at Hariharananda Gurukulam, and also Hariharananda Tapovanam in Uttara Kashi. Then on February 20, 2012, the auspicious day of Mahashivaratri, through the infinite grace of the Guru, he was blessed with the fourth ashrama of sannyasa, becoming Swami Matrukrupananda Giri.

Matrukrupananda means 'the bliss of the Divine Mother's grace.' Currently Swami Matrukrupananda Giri is a resident swami of the Kriya Vedanta Gurukulam, Joliet, IL, where he selflessly serves God and Gurus with heartfelt dedication and love.
